

a

Replace the underlined words with an appropriate pronoun.

Maddie wants to be an Olympic swimmer when Maddie gets older. It is Maddie's biggest dream. Maddie spends most of Maddie's life in goggles; she even sleeps in goggles.

Tick the sentences that has used the plural possessive apostrophe correctly:

c

The children's shoes were terribly muddy.

The childrens' coats were all wet.

The girls' noses were all red from the freezing air.

The boys finger's were bitterly cold.

Underline the fronted adverbial in this sentence.

e

At the top of the hill, the Easter egg race began.

Rewrite this sentence with a subordinate clause.

f

Many tourists visit New York City every year.

Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled two Y3/ Y4 spelling words. Can you help him to unjumble them? (CLUE: They're both adjectives!)

b ragnste aihgstrt

_____ _____

Can you think of words ending in 'cian' to match these occupation definitions?

d

A member of parliament _____

Someone who checks your eyesight _____

Can you write the Daniel's words as an accurately-punctuated direct speech?

a

Catch!

Now, can you invent Jasmine's reply?

Can you think of a word that ends in -ous to match these definitions?

b

brave/heroic c _____

funny/amusing h _____

impulsive/wild s _____

Mr Whoops has accidentally used some suffixes incorrectly. Fix the words by using the correct suffixes

c

Housework isn't very enjoyable and because I'm quite clumsy, it is often dangeral. My clumsity can be a real problem!

_____	→	_____
_____	→	_____
_____	→	_____

Fill the spaces with the correct word in brackets:

d

My painting is _____ than yours. (best/better/gooder)

The rainstorm was the _____ I'd ever seen. (worse/baddest/worst)

Thomas has two toy cars _____ than me. (less/fewer)

Up-level this sentence!

e

The girl walked her dog in the park.

Insert the correct speech punctuation into these sentences:

f

The teacher shouted Time to go!

The reporter asked When did the incident occur?

Write another direct speech sentence where the reporting clause comes before the spoken words.