

Vocabulary

Key Vocabulary	Definition
Maya	The people
Mayan	The language
Polytheists	People who believe in several gods and goddess
Plausible	Could something be true
Bias	A personal point of view or experience that effect our perception of historical facts
Interpret	An option of artefacts, historical events hieroglyph - pictorial writing

Hola Mexico ! Key Questions

- Who is Ixcacao?
- What is a Cenote?
- How did the Maya believe they had been created?
- Why did the Maya believe royal blood was so important?

Key Individual Ixcacao goddess

Key Facts
The Maya were one of the first to use the concept of zero
Their Maya calendar finished in 2012 when many believed the world would end.
The Maya cities have been shown by lidar to be bigger than first thought
The Maya have a goddess of chocolate
Their most famous monuments are the pyramids they built as part of their religious centres, and the palaces
There are still about 6 million Maya people living in Central America.

Work Examples

Timeline

