

Near and Far - Year 2

The Isle of Coll

The Isle of Coll is a small island on the north-west coast of Scotland. It has a village with a population of less than 200! It is over 500 miles away from Aylesbury. A human feature of the Isle of Coll is Breachacha Castle. Some physical features on the Isle of Coll are beaches, sand dunes and Ben Hagh.

Aylesbury

Aylesbury is a town in England. It is where we go to school. Some human features of Aylesbury are the Waterside Theatre, Friar's Square and Waddesdon Manor. Some physical features near Aylesbury are Wendover Woods, the Chiltern Hills and the River Thame.

Nairobi

Nairobi is the capital city of Kenya, in the continent of Africa. It is a city with a population of over 4 million people and is over 6,000 miles away from Aylesbury. Human features of Nairobi are skyscrapers, universities and train stations. Physical features of Nairobi are Mount Suswa and Nairobi national park.

Page 17 in the atlas

Page 14/15 in the atlas

The UK

The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland is found in Western Europe. It is made up of England, Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland. Aylesbury is found in England!

The capital city of England, and of the UK, is London.

The capital city of Wales is Cardiff.

The capital city of Scotland is Edinburgh.

The capital city of Northern Ireland is Belfast.

Scotland is north of England.

Wales is west of England.

Northern Ireland is west of England.

Our school is in Aylesbury. Aylesbury is in the centre of England, north-west of London. Aylesbury is a town.

Key Vocabulary

Physical Features (naturally occurring)				Human Features (things made or built by humans)
village	a group of houses/buildings bigger smaller than a town.	city	a large group of buildings, bigger than a town.	woods	an area of land covered with trees.	valley	A low area of land surrounded by hills or mountains.
town	an area with lots of buildings bigger than a town, but smaller than a city.	office	a building used for work.	island	a piece of land surrounded by water.	desert	an area of land that does not get very much rain.