Pupil Code of Conduct

Behaviour Charter

At Green Ridge, we have established our behaviour charter. These are key beliefs and fundamental expectations to how children behave which apply to all children and have been created in a way that can be understood and recognized by all children, even from the youngest age.

At Green Ridge, we will:

1. Use kind words and actions
2. Listen to one another
3. Try our best

Our behaviour charter means that:

- You have the right to have your opinions heard and the responsibility to listen to others and you should always try to understand other people's point of view.
- You have the right to a good education but the responsibility to be in school promptly. School begins at 8.45am (EYFS/KS1) or 8.50am (KS2). You should arrive at school on time. If you do arrive late then you must register with the School Office. If you are absent for any reason, you must bring a note the day you return to explain why.
- You have the right to be clothed, but you should come to school smartly dressed in correct school uniform. You should always wear correct Green Ridge PE kit. Stud earrings and watches are the only jewellery which may be worn in school (n.b this should not be a smartwatch with the capability of taking pictures or playing games)
- You have the right to develop healthily and the responsibility to keep fit. This includes the responsibility to be prepared to take part in PE/Games or swimming. If there is any reason why you cannot do PE/Games or go swimming, you must bring a note from home or from a doctor.
- You have the right not to be hurt or experience oppressive behaviour. You also have the responsibility not to hurt others. Bullying will not be tolerated at our school.
- You have the right to be heard but the responsibility not to use bad language (which will not be tolerated). You should always speak politely to everyone (even if you feel bad tempered) and use a low voice (shouting is discourteous).
- You have the right to an education but the responsibility in class to make it as easy as possible for everyone to learn and for the teacher to teach. This means arriving on time with everything that is needed for that lesson, beginning and ending the lesson in a courteous and orderly way, listening carefully, following instructions, helping each other when appropriate, and being quiet and sensible at all times.
- You must move gently and quietly about school. This means never running, barging or shouting, but being ready to help by opening doors, standing back to allow people to pass and helping to carry things.
- Your right to a good education means that you have the responsibility to keep the school clean and tidy so that it is a welcoming place we can all be proud of. This means putting litter in bins, keeping walls and furniture unmarked and taking great care of the displays, particularly of other people's work.
- You should not bring any valuables into school. Money brought to school for specific purposes must be placed in a named envelope and either handed directly to the school office or your Class Teacher.
- You must take great care of your own and other people's property. Other children's belongings must not be touched, unless permission has been given.
- You have the right to have access reliable information by using electronic communication and information systems such as e-mail and the internet and the responsibility to use them safely as described in the acceptable use agreement for ICT.
- You have the right to nutritious food and when this is provided the responsibility not to waste this special gift.
- You have the right to relax, play and take part in a wide range of activities provided by the school.
- Out of school, walking locally or with a school group, you always remember that the school's reputation depends on the way you behave.
