Take a Look and Read a Book Parent/Carer Library Sessions

Dear Parents & Carers,

To further celebrate our love of reading, parents and carers are warmly invited to come in and enjoy a library session with their child. During these sessions we will be asking you to support the children while they select books and put them back correctly, sit and read both fiction and non-fiction books as well as help them scan their books in and out using our library system. Please do come along to the main office to sign in and your class teacher will meet you there. Please see below the upcoming dates and times for each class.
